

“From one man he made every nation of men, that they should inhabit the whole earth; and he determined the times set for them and the exact places where they should live. God did this so that men would seek him and perhaps reach out for him and find him, though he is not far from each one of us.”

(Acts 17:26-27 NIV;
cf. Genesis 1:28)

We are blessed by three kinds of financial support: CRC ministry shares, designated church offerings, and generous gifts from people like you. Thank You!

Through the year we celebrate the ethnic diversity of all nations that have become a living part of the Christian Reformed Church. In our diversity, though, we are all united in Christ. In Acts 17:26-27, Paul points out that we all are connected through one man, we all have one Creator God, and we all have a meaningful purpose for existing: To Know God.

We celebrate Christ Jesus, our Lord, whose redeeming work gathers our diversity into one unified body. We celebrate the Spirit who speaks in the many languages of Pentecost and who still overcomes the differences of language and culture.

On this special Sunday, your prayers and offerings enable and empower the Office of Race Relations. We resource congregations and members of the Christian Reformed Church as they dismantle the causes and effects of racism within the body of believers and throughout the world.

MINISTRY OF RACE RELATIONS

The Office of Race Relations has been mandated by the synod of the Christian Reformed Church to design, organize, and implement programs and resources that will assist the entire denomination in eliminating the causes and effects of racism within the body of believers and throughout the world.
