

Pulpit Announcement for Candidacy Sunday (Starter Text)

Candidacy Sunday offers churches a great opportunity to invest in the people who are pursuing a call from God to ordained ministry in the CRCNA.

The Candidacy Committee supports, guides and resources the men and women on this journey towards ordination. They also oversee the process of evaluating and recommending candidates to synod, so that CRC congregations can be enriched by leadership that is mature, healthy and theologically Reformed.

If you have questions contact Susan LaClear, director of Candidacy (slaclear@crcna.org).
