

CLASSICAL PRAYER COORDINATOR

PURPOSE

The mission of the Classical Prayer Coordinator is to encourage and enhance the practice of prayer and intercession (including prayer for the lost) in every congregation in classis.

GOALS

1. To develop and train a network of prayer coordinators in each church of classis.
2. Through the congregational prayer coordinators, increase the frequency, consistency, and intensity of prayer in the life of the congregation and in the lives of individual members.
3. Through the network of congregational prayer coordinators, provide growth opportunities for the churches and church members of classis to grow in their practice of prayer.
4. Identify and provide training for intercessors in the local congregations.
5. To provide a prayer foundation for the work and ministries of Classis.

RESPONSIBILITIES

1. To Become Trained: meet with the Home Missions Regional Director (HMRD) and the other Classical Prayer Coordinators of the region for annual or semi-annual training, skill building, and strategizing.
2. To Become Connected: meet with the HMRD and periodically for updates and encouragement.
3. To Promote Prayer in the Local Church: develop a network of one Congregational Prayer Coordinator or a prayer team in each church of classis.
4. To Train: train, encourage, and enable each Congregational Prayer Coordinator to develop the prayer ministry in his/her church.
5. To Assist and Encourage: assist and encourage Congregational Prayer Coordinators to identify, develop/train, and encourage people in each congregation with the gift and/or passion for intercession.

QUALITIES

1. A strong personal relationship of love with God through Jesus Christ.
2. A deep passion for intercession, and the gifts of leadership, teaching, and/or encouragement.
3. A concern for the lost, and the desire that they be found and disciplined.
