

Who's Driving the Vehicle?

Steering Wheel

Front Seat Passenger

Vision Drives and steers Mission Purpose Core values Visionary leadership Not just a mission statement but a shared journey as a classis and a movement that has caught us. "Where is God at work in our classis and how can we join in?"	Relationships Navigate Experiences Trust/respect Care/mutuality Between congregations, between pastors, between key leaders. "We're in this together because we need each other."
Management Supports the vision Systems Structures Meetings Committees and teams Classis business is handled efficiently and thoughtfully. Teams and classis structures are designed around the vision of classis. The vision is placed in the hands of a central leadership team. "How can we best implement our vision?"	Programs Serve relationships Events Ministries Services Resource delivery Classis retreats, staff, grants, and other resources are in place to help congregations and their leaders flourish. "What can we do as a classis to grow healthy congregations?"