Worship Arts Director

The Worship Arts Director develops the ministries of music and the visual arts in the worship of the church so that the worship of the congregation is enhanced to the glory of God. Christ Church sees itself as being Reformed, catholic, and missional in its worship and ministry emphases in Davis, California. Christ Church is part of the Christian Reformed Church in North America.

Qualifications

The Worship Arts Director should have a demonstrated track record of leadership in music and ministry. The Worship Arts Director should demonstrate a mature Christian faith and commitment to the Reformed/Presbyterian articulation of that faith.

Qualities we desire in an ideal candidate are:

1. Leadership ability – able to work collegially with musicians, artists and other leaders, and pastorally with a diverse congregation
2. Theologically grounded – able to articulate a theology of worship that demonstrates a solid grasp of historic principles and contemporary issues in Christian worship
3. Musically trained – understands music from a variety of genres and generations, with an eye toward the history of Christian tradition, as well as newer music that ably reflects the best of that tradition.
4. Historically aware – prayerfully reflect on the history of Christian worship and the Reformed strain of that history, including the liturgical calendar and a Reformed order of worship

Responsibilities

1. Oversee and resource all worship services at the church.
2. Plan Sunday morning services in consultation with pastors.
3. Supervise all paid and volunteer staff in Worship Arts.
4. Oversee sound and video equipment.
5. Manage equipment, instruments and music including copyrights and library.
6. Assist in planning and leading special and seasonal programs.
7. Other responsibilities as agreed upon under the direction of the Lead Pastor and council.

Accountability

1. The Worship Arts Director is directly accountable to the council, with further accountability to the lead pastor.
2. All members of the ministry staff are supported by and accountable to the council (elders and deacons) of the church. The elder for Worship is the main link to the council for the Worship Arts Director.

Compensation

This is a part time position with a salary commensurate with experience, education and the salaries for similar positions in other churches in our area.
