Describe the need that you feel you have for coaching/training?

Do you have a request for a specific worship coach? See the current list of endorsed coaches here: crcna.org/worship/endorsed-coaches

An initial consultation will be set up for you with a worship coach to determine the best coaching or training opportunity to meet your need. This initial consultation will be offered to you free of charge by CRC Worship Ministries.

It is our hope that the initial consultation will help you and the coach clarify how you might work together in the future. Basic categories for further coaching/training are included in the list below. Additional coaching/training beyond the initial consultation will require the creation of a contract between you and the endorsed coach including a financial agreement. If finances are an issue you and/or the endorsed coach can contact our office and we will see if we can come up with a creative financial solution.
