

Georgetown Christian Reformed Church
Director of Community Relationships
Developed and approved on July 24, 2018

This twenty-two hour a week position is responsible for activating and mobilizing the congregation to engage the wider community by giving active expression to Georgetown's ministry priorities of:

- a) inviting our neighbors to know and love Jesus and,
- b) serving in and with our community.

I. Responsibilities:

A. Empower and equip the people of the congregation to deepen and grow relational connections in the wider community.

- Be a role model for growing relationships with the external community
- Provide training, resources, and experiences to help the people of the congregation value and grow relationships with those who do not have a community of faith or practice their faith in Christian community.
- Help the people of the congregation grow in both comfort and security with sharing their faith in their relationships.
- Provide continuous development of communication platforms and strategies to connect with the wider community.
- Grow current and develop new partnerships with other helping organizations.

B. Work collaboratively with our ministry teams and particularly with our elder and deacon of outreach to generate continuous service opportunities for congregational engagement with the wider community.

- With the staff and the Ministry Visioning team to coordinate community engagement and service initiatives
- With the Deacons to develop, deepen and strengthen new community oriented ministries
- With the Elders to deepen and strengthen authentic and empathetic relationships in our life together
- With the Outreach team to foster and oversee current community ministries, missionary support and encourage congregational involvement in mission projects.
- Oversee planning and implementation of ongoing church-wide outreach events.

II. Spiritual and Personal Qualifications:

A. A growing relationship with Jesus Christ and a mature, Christian lifestyle.

B. An understanding and belief in the tenets of the Reformed Christian faith.

- C. A commitment to working with the pastors and staff in carrying out the mission and ministry priorities of Georgetown Church.

III. Accountability and reporting:

- A. As a member of Georgetown Church staff, the Director of Community Relationships is accountable to the Pastor of Congregational Life.
- B. In the overall performance of ministry, the Director of Community Relationships is accountable to the Council.
- C. The work and performance of the Director of Community Relationships will be reviewed and evaluated annually by the Pastor of Congregational Life in consultation with the Office Manager.

Note: As a director of ministry, membership at Georgetown is expected within one year of employment.