

Dr. Jason Lief - is a professor of biblical and theological studies at Northwestern College in Orange City, Iowa. His primary focus is Practical Theology—exploring how theological language connects with lived experience. Prior to Northwestern, he taught courses in Christian education, theology and youth ministry at Dordt University. Jason also works part time for the National Immigration Forum as a Bibles, Badges, and Business mobilizer for Iowa, South Dakota, Wisconsin, Missouri, and Nebraska. He enjoys writing about music and film, and fronts a band called The Hiccups with son Christian. Jason serves as the Iowa Immigration Mobilizer for the CRC's Office of Social Justice and World Renew.

Alexia Salvatierra - is the assistant professor of integral mission and global transformation in the School of Intercultural Studies and the founder developer and coordinator of the Diplomado en la Respuesta de la Iglesia a la Crisis Migratoria. She is a Lutheran Pastor with over 40 years of experience in pastoral ministry, community development, community organizing and advocacy, in the US and internationally. She has been a national leader in the field of immigration for over 20 years, co-founding the New Sanctuary Movement, the Evangelical Immigration Table, the Guardian Angels program for Unaccompanied Migrant Minors and Matthew 25/Mateo 25 - a coalition of immigrant and non-immigrant believers and "puentes" (bilingual, bicultural millennials.) Prior to Fuller, she taught courses in a variety of academic contexts, including Azusa Pacific University, New York Theological Seminary (DMin), Wesley Theological Seminary, the Nazarene Theological Seminary, Eastern University and Biola University. Alexia co authored Faith-Rooted Organizing: Mobilizing the Church in Service to the World is in its 8th edition. She is a contributor to Evangelical Theologies of Liberation and Justice, Scholars and Southern California Immigrants in Dialogue: New Conversations in Public Sociology, Trails of Hope and Terror: Testimonies on Immigration, and Liberating Biblical Study. She is published in several academic journals building on her dissertation of equipping Hispanic immigrant pastors for holistic mission. An activist mentored by civil rights leaders, she passes it on by teaching and mentoring young and old.

Clarence Presley - is the US Western Regional Leader at Resonate Global Mission. He is also Lead Pastor at Word of Truth International Ministries CRC in Seattle, Washington and the founder of the Kingdom in Neighborhoods (K.I.N.) Network - a network of Urban Missionaries & Ministries in the Northwest U.S. area. Clarence coaches individuals who have a genuine desire to grow as authentic leaders and impact their communities while also empowering organizations to get clear on who they are and where they want to be.
