

SEPTEMBER 12-14, 2019
Calgary, ALBERTA

REFRESHED FOR THE CALL

Come to a conference created specifically for CRC parish pastors. Be refreshed as you step away from the demands of ministry and life to reflect on your wellbeing and your relationship with God.

Rev. Dr. Chris Adams will speak on flourishing in ministry—based on current research being done by the University of Notre Dame. Integrated sessions will explore a variety of topics relevant to pastors.

Plenary Speaker

Chris Adams

grew up in a music ministry family in the Nashville area. As a third generation pastor's kid, experienced pastor, and father of two pastors' kids, Chris understands firsthand the unique joys and challenges of pastoral ministry. As a clinical psychologist specializing in research and counseling with pastors and their families, Chris has come to believe that pastoral ministry is incredibly fulfilling, yet one of the most demanding roles that exists. Many of the stresses go unrecognized, even by pastors themselves. And yet much of the negative impact of ministry stress can be prevented. He's excited to experience God together, and reflect on how God is inviting us to flourish in life and ministry.

Cost of the Conference

The CRCNA's Pastor Church Resources underwrites most of the expenses. The registration fee is $150 (CAN/US). This fee covers two hotel nights and most of your meals—beginning with supper on Thursday and ending with lunch on Saturday. You'll be on your own for supper on Friday. See page 2 for travel information.

Give ear and come to me; listen, that you may live.”
