Leader: We have been appointed by God to join our voices with every creature under heaven.

People: Let us raise a song of praise and thanksgiving to God.

Gathering Hymn

This version of the familiar hymn uses the original language as written by St. Francis of Assisi.

Leader sings: All creatures of our God and King,
   lift up your voice and with us sing,
Alleluia! Alleluia!
   O brother sun with golden beam,
   And sister moon with silver gleam,
Alleluia! Alleluia!
   Alleluia! Alleluia! Alleluia!

   O brother wind and breezes soft,
   O clouds that ride the winds aloft,
   Alleluia! Alleluia!
   O sister water, flowing clear,
   make music for your Lord to hear,
   Alleluia! Alleluia!
   Alleluia! Alleluia! Alleluia!

   Dear Mother Earth who day by day
   Unfolds such blessings on our way,
   Alleluia! Alleluia!

Seasons of Creation - 5
The flowers and fruits that in thee grow,
let them God’s glory also show,
Alleluia! Alleluia!
Alleluia! Alleluia! Alleluia!

Greeting

Leader: The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, the love of God, and the communion of the Holy Spirit be with you all.

People: And also with you.

Leader: God of creation, we give thanks for the beauty and goodness of the earth that you called into being and continually nurture and sustain. Our voices join in praise with all creation: with the sea that roars, the trees that clap their hands, and the birds that sing in joy. By your Spirit, weave us anew into your purposes for abundant life, in the name of Jesus Christ we pray,

People: Amen.

(Please be seated.)

Lament and Confession

Leader: Beloved, we are made in the divine image, and God called us good. Yet we go our own way, causing harm to ourselves, to one another, and to the earth. So let us lament, and confess our sin to God and to one another.

Song of Lament

(In silence we lament the brokenness in Creation.)

Leader: God of all mercy, we confess that we have sinned against you.

People: We repent of the evil that enslaves us, the evil we have done, and the evil done on our behalf. We acknowledge that we have benefitted from and participated in the exploitation of your creation through fossil fuel industries, through plastics that have suffocated our landscapes, through the pollution of waterways, extinction of species, and destruction of places called home both near and far, and through a broken relationship with the earth which gives us life. Forgive, restore, and strengthen us through our Savior Jesus Christ, that we may abide in your love and serve your purpose of shalom for the whole community of creation. Amen.

_Silent prayer of confession._

_People:_ Glory to God in the highest!

_Leader:_ Gracious God, as we open the scriptures today, speak your Word to us, that we may be recreated in your Son, Jesus Christ. In his life, may we have new life; in his light, may we see light.

Prayer for Illumination

_Leader:_ Gracious God, as we open the scriptures today, speak your Word to us, that we may be recreated in your Son, Jesus Christ. In his life, may we have new life; in his light, may we see light.

People: Amen.

Old Testament Reading: Isaiah 40:21-31

Leader: 21Have you not known? Have you not heard? Has it not been told you from the beginning? Have you not understood from the foundations of the earth? 22It is he who sits above the circle of the earth, and its inhabitants are like grasshoppers; who stretches out the heavens like a curtain, and spreads them like a tent to live in; 23who brings princes to naught, and makes the rulers of the earth as nothing. 24Scarcely are they planted, scarcely sown, scarcely has their stem taken root in the earth, when he blows upon them, and they wither, and the tempest carries them off like stubble. 25To whom then will you compare me, or who is my equal? says the Holy One. 26Lift up your eyes on high and see: Who created these? He who brings out their host and numbers them, calling them all by name; because he is great in strength, mighty in power, not one is missing. 27Why do you say, O Jacob, and speak, O Israel, “My way is hidden from the Lord, and my right is disregarded by my God”? 28Have you not known? Have you not heard? The Lord is the everlasting God, the Creator of the ends of the earth. He does not faint or grow weary; his understanding is unsearchable. 29He gives power to the faint, and strengthens the powerless. 30Even youths will faint and be weary, and the young will fall exhausted; 31but those who wait for the Lord shall renew their strength, they shall mount up with wings like eagles, they shall run and not be weary, they shall walk and not faint.

This is the Word of the Lord.

People: Thanks be to God.

New Testament Reading: Mark 1:32-39

Leader: 32That evening, at sundown, they brought to him all who were sick or possessed with demons. 33And the whole city was gathered around the door. 34And he cured many who were sick with various diseases, and cast out many demons; and he would not permit the demons to speak, because they knew him. 35 In the morning, while it was still very dark, he got up and went out to a deserted place, and there he prayed. 36 And Simon and his companions hunted for him. 37 When they found him, they said to him, “Everyone is searching for you.” 38 He answered, “Let us go on to the neighboring towns, so that I may proclaim the message there also; for that is what I came out to do.” 39 And he went throughout Galilee, proclaiming the message in their synagogues and casting out demons.

This is the Word of the Lord.

People: Thanks be to God.

Leader: Yours is the day, yours also the night; you have established the heavenly lights and the sun. You have fixed all the boundaries of the earth. (Psalm 74:16-17)

People: You gathered the waters of the sea as a heap; you put the deep in storehouses. (Psalm 33:7)

People: It is you who made us, and we are yours; we are your people, the sheep of your pasture. (Psalm 100:3)

Leader: When we consider the heavens, the work of your fingers, the moon and the stars, which you have set in place, what are we that you are mindful of us, that you care for us? (Psalm 8:3-4)

People: You made us rulers over the works of your hands; you put everything under our feet: all flocks and herds, and the animals of the wild, the birds in the sky, and the fish in the sea, all that swim the paths of the seas. (Psalm 8:6-8)

Leader: Let all the earth fear you; let all the inhabitants of the world stand in awe of you! (Psalm 33:8)

Prayer of Great Thanksgiving to God the Creator

Leader: We lift up our hearts to you, Creator God. You spread the dazzling canopy of the heavens and established the deep foundations of the earth; you lifted up mountains and hills, and poured out oceans and rivers. You filled the earth, teeming with life, revealing your glory, and made human beings in your image to help care for this world, our beautiful and precious home.

When human violence, corruption, and greed laid waste to your good creation, still you called us, again and again, to return. You revealed your righteous Law to show the path.

Then, in the fullness of time, out of your great love for the world, you sent Jesus Christ to redeem and restore the earth, heal our brokenness, and make... all things new. Therefore we praise you, joining our voices with choirs of angels, with prophets, apostles, and martyrs, with all creatures great and small, and with all the faithful of every time and place who forever sing to the glory of your name:

People: Holy, holy, holy, Lord. God of power and might, heaven and earth are full of your glory. Hosanna in the highest.

Hymn: All on Earth and All in Heaven. Lift Up Your Hearts #922

People: Alleluia! Amen!

All sing: Let all things their Creator bless,
And worship God in humbleness,
Alleluia! Alleluia!
Praise, praise the Father, praise the Son,

Alleluia! Alleluia!
Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia!

...for the work of Jesus Christ

Leader: You are holy, O God of majesty, and blessed is Jesus Christ, your Word made flesh in the body of a woman. Christ is the Word that brings order to chaos, revealing all things, birthing life by the Spirit. Christ is the Bread of Life, feeding the poor and hungry, giving wisdom and strength for each day. Christ is the True Vine, binding us together in unity of the Spirit, empowering us to bear fruit for the world. And so we give thanks that this same Christ gave us this memorial of his sacrifice until his coming again.

On the night he was betrayed he took bread, said the blessing, broke the bread, and gave it to his friends, and said, “Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me.”

People: We who are many are one body for we all share the same loaf.

Leader: After supper, he took the cup of wine, gave thanks, and said, “Drink this, all of you; this is my blood of the new covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me.”

People: The cup which we all share is our fellowship in the blood of Christ.

Leader: Remembering God’s faithfulness to us and to all of creation through Jesus Christ, let us proclaim the mystery of faith:

People: Christ has died. Christ is risen. Christ will come again.
...for the presence of the Holy Spirit

Leader:  God of all creation, through your goodness we receive this bread and wine: fruit of the earth and work of human hands. By your Holy Spirit, may this bread and wine become for us the bread of life and the cup of salvation. Make us one with Christ, and one with all who share this meal. Heal your stricken world today, that the groaning of the soil, the skies, and the seas may be transformed to rejoicing as you remember your covenant and reveal your glory.

People:  Amen.
