

Service of Holy Communion for the Sick or Homebound (2016): COVID-19 Leader

*The following service was approved by Synod 2016 . The full version online has multiple choices which were made on your behalf. If you would like the full version you can find it HERE. It is also available in Korean. *Text in green font have been added for this occasion.

The intent of this service was for a pastor and elders to bring communion to those who cannot attend congregational worship in person. It is provided here for possible use in homes led by a non-ordained “designate” as defined by your church’s council/leadership. See this document for help in having this discussion. Households/small groups that are part of an organized church should not celebrate the sacraments without prior permission from their council/church leadership.

Greeting from the Congregation

[To connect what happens in the home with your local church and the larger body of Christ it is appropriate to include a few words from the pastor and council.]

A Brief Reading from Scripture

Suggested readings: John 6:46-51, Romans 8:31-39, Psalm 36:5-9, or other appropriate readings, or perhaps the text from the Sunday sermon.

Invitation to Communion

Jesus said, “Come to me,
all you who are weary and are carrying heavy burdens,
and I will give you rest.
Take my yoke upon you, and learn from me;
for I am gentle and humble in heart,
and you will find rest for your souls.” —from Matthew 11:28-29

The Prayer of Thanksgiving

Leader: Lift up your hearts.

All: We lift them up to the Lord.

Leader: Let us give thanks to the Lord, our God.

All: It is right for us to give thanks and praise.

Leader:

With joy we praise you, gracious Father,
for you have created heaven and earth . . . .
Therefore we join our voices

with all the saints and angels and the whole creation to proclaim the glory of your name.

All:

Holy, holy, holy Lord, God of power and might,
heaven and earth are full of your glory.

Hosanna in the highest.

Blessed is the one who comes in the name of the Lord.

Hosanna in the highest.

The Words of Institution

Our Savior, Jesus Christ, before he suffered, gave us this memorial of his sacrifice, until he comes again. At his last supper, the Lord Jesus took bread, and when he had given thanks, he broke it [here the minister/or designate breaks the bread] and said, "This is my body, which is for you; do this in remembrance of me." In the same way, he took the cup after supper [here the minister/or designate pours the wine] and said, "This cup is the new covenant in my blood; do this in remembrance of me."

Prayer of Consecration

Lord, our God, send your Holy Spirit so that this bread and cup may be for us the body and blood of our Lord Jesus Christ. May we and all your saints be united with Christ and remain faithful in hope and love, and may this, the bread of life, bring healing of body, mind, and spirit. Through Christ, our Lord, who taught us to pray saying,

*Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy name;
thy kingdom come,
thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread;
and forgive us our debts,
as we forgive our debtors;
and lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom and the power and glory, forever. Amen.*

The Communion

The body of Christ, given for you.

The blood of Christ, shed for you.

Thanksgiving

Eternal God, heavenly Father,
you have graciously accepted us as living members of your Son, our Savior, Jesus Christ, and you have fed us with spiritual food

in the sacrament of his body and blood.
May Christ's love live in our hearts each day and his victorious life sustain us in our weakness.
Through Christ, our Lord, Amen.

Blessing

[The following or another appropriate blessing may be said—and, where appropriate, with laying on of hands.]

The blessing of almighty God—the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit—be with you now, and remain with you forever. Amen.
